Boosters Must Have $22,000 'On Hand' by Aug.17

The Thornapple Kellogg Board of Education Monday night gave its approval to the fund raising activities of the TK Boosers in an effort to restore extra curricular activities to the system this fall.

That approval did not come, however, without two of the board members finding fault with the Boosters on the timing of their funding program. Board members Wes VanRhee and Duane Thatcher were upset that the group did not first get approval from the Board before going ahead with the funding ideas.

After lengthy discussion the Board recognized the Boosters as an "official fund raising group" according to a policy the board had set previously this year. The Board also told the Boosters that $22,000 must be committed by August 17 to insure the fall extra curriculum activities will be made available to the students.

At particular issue was the August 1 deadline that the Board had previously set for groups to come forth with funds for cut programs. The Booster spokesman, Jim Verlinde, pointed out that their group did not get organized until three weeks ago and didn't have an opportunity to clear their ideas with the Board. The Board had to rescind their motion of June 15 and then set the August 17 deadline as the date when $22,000 must "be committed by cash or note to the Board for the funding."

Both Board members VanRhee and Thatcher, although voicing general support for the Booster's plan to fund extra curriculum programs, were critical of the group for not clearing their ideas with the Board first. Especially coming under fire was the Booster plan to sell $100 golden seats at football and basketball games this year. "By whose authority did you think you could designate certain seats in the stadium or gym for this purpose," said Van Rhee. Judy Sloan, a member of the Boosters and one of the originators of the $100 seat idea, reported that when it was first suggested at a Booster meeting, the people there were enthusiastic and the $100 bills "started coming in right then. I guess we didn't think about it being a problem," she said.

Thatcher, after a heated exchange with Superintendent Arthur Ellinger, challenged the administration's record on making recommendations and then having to rescind or change them at a later time. "This puts the Board in a very uncomfortable position," he said. Ellinger defended his statement to the Boosters that the August 1 deadline could probably be worked around. "When we made that recommendation to the board in June, we (the administration) did so because of certain athletic scheduling problems," said Ellinger. Assistant Superintendent Jerry Page felt that the August 1 deadline was not "cast in cement." Thatcher wanted it to be remembered that "we should recall this night if some time later we must cut curriculum to fund committed extra-curriculum activities."

Verlinde, in outlining what the Boosters had done so far, reported that the group was committed to funding the extra curriculum program for the year. It is estimated that over $55,000 must be raised to accomplish this, of which $22,000 is the fall portion. A meeting was set for this Wednesday night (August 5) to discuss ways and means to meet the Board's August 17 deadline.

Plan Meeting Next Thursday

The TK Boosters will meet at the high school auditorium next Thursday, August 13, at 7:30 p.m. All interested persons are urged and welcome to attend.

THE WHEAT FIELDS are harvested and the huge bales of straw stand sentinel on the land, as this photo shows on the Phillip Bender farm on Bender road southwest of Middleville. It has been an excellent growing year with corn looking in top shape. It has been the kind of weather that gives the listener an opportunity to hear the corn grow on these warm summer nights.

Boosters to Meet

The August meeting of the Caledonia Athletic Boosters will be held next Monday, August 10, 7:00 p.m. in the CHS Library. All those interested in continuing the present sports program and bringing back sports that were dropped should attend.

Elected Veterinary Auxiliary President

Mrs. Wayne L. Finkbeiner, wife of a Caledonia veterinarian, has been elected President of the Auxiliary to the American Veterinary Medical Association (AVMA) during the Auxiliary's convention in St. Louis, Mo.

The Auxiliary to the AVMA, the oldest auxiliary to a medical profession in the United States, was organized in 1917 and has approximately 10,000 members. It raises money for the AVMA's Foundation which underwrites veterinary fellows and scholars engaged in research in the twenty-one accredited colleges of veterinary medicine in the United States. The Auxiliary presents awards at these colleges to outstanding senior students and to their spouses who are members of the veterinary students' auxiliary.

In addition, the Auxiliary maintains a loan fund of over $400,000 for veterinary students and participates in the AVMA public information program.

Mrs. Finkbeiner has previously served the National Auxiliary as a member of the Nominating Committee in 1972-73; a member of the Publications Committee in 1973-75; Chairman of the Long Range Planning Committee in 1974; Vice President for Membership in 1975-76; Treasurer in 1977-79; Vice President for Student Auxiliaries in 1979-80; and President Elect in 1980-81. For the State Auxiliary she has served as Vice President in 1967; President in 1968-69 and many other committee chairmanships.

Mrs. Wayne (Marie) Finkbeiner

Mrs. Finkbeiner is presently serving as Chairman of the Evangelism Committee for the Leighton United Methodist Church. She is a member of both the District Council on Ministries and the Board of Discipleship of the United Methodist Church. Dr. and Mrs. Finkbeiner have just returned from a work mission at the Delmo Housing Corp. in Lilbourn, Missouri, with a group from the Leighton united Methodist Church. They will be participating in a veterinary tour to China, Japan and Hong Kong in September. Marie enjoys sewing, knitting, chalk talk for churches, fishing and traveling.

Dr. and Mrs. Finkbeiner have three children: Mrs. Forrest Frank (Sandra), Mrs. John R. Smith (Sally), and Susan, who is in Portland, Oregon.

Dr. Finkbeiner has a mixed practice in Caledonia.

Honored

Each June the Middleville Rotary Club sends a young man from the community to the Rotary Youth Leadership Conference held at Camp Emery near Muskegon. This year Scott Page, a 1981 graduate of TKHS, and son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Page of Gun Lake, was Middleville's representative.

In a letter from the camp director, William Austin of Muskegon, Scott's parents were informed how much Scott was appreciated at the conference. He said "You would be interested to know, I'm sure, that this year Scott was named the outstanding potential leader of the one hundred young men assembled at Blue Lake. This is an unusual and a unique honor. In a five day period to have one young man surface as the outstanding leader so judged by his peers, is something not to be taken lightly."

In this leadership role, Scott was named the master of ceremonies at the concluding banquet. This fall Scott will attend the University of Michigan.

Three Players from Area on Hope's Flying Dutchmen Football Squad

When the Flying Dutchmen of Hope College open their football season on September 5, there will be three local students on the team.

Mike Andrusiak of Caledonia, a junior at Hope and a previous letter winner will be at the safety position, and Brian Oosterhouse and Mike Schipper, both 1981 graduates of Thornapple Kellogg, will be working out with the team.

The Middleville Jaycees would like to thank Thornapple Post 7548 V.F.W. for donating a picnic table for the Jaycee Riverside Park.

DOUBLE D TRAIL RIDERS

The Double D Trail Riders held a ride Saturday, August 1, beginning at the home of Larry and Kathy Lawrence on Robertson Road. The ride was well attended with 23 horses present. Anyone wishing to ride with the group should contact one of the members or call Jean Ford, President, 795-7823; Bob Martin, Vice President, 795-9348; or Marilyn Schultz, Secretary, 795-9804; to obtain a schedule for the quarter.

WORK IS PROGRESSING on the Lincoln Meadows Senior Citizen Housing apartment complex in Middleville with much of the exterior finished. Inside the contractors are installing the kitchen cabinets and floors. The project is a little behind schedule, but will be completed by early November. Occupancy is expected after the first of the year. The Housing Commission is expected to be reviewing formal applications in the very near future.

Pennock Seeks Lab Expansion Approval

Pennock Hospital, Hastings, has asked the State to approve a laboratory expansion project. The existing laboratory is located on the ground floor's southwest corner. The addition would expand to the west and south of the existing laboratory, and would provide an additional 3,696 square feet to house clinical areas, as well as an outpatient waiting area and blood drawing room.

Additional space would also accommodate the histology area, autopsy room, and offices for the pathologist and the chief medical technologist. In addition, the drive area would be relocated to the west parking lot to give patients easier access for laboratory outpatient services.

The project would be completed in April 1981, at an estimated cost of $500,000.

In keeping with state and federal regulations requiring State approval and action by the local health systems agency board prior to construction and capital expenditure, Pennock Hospital has applied for a certificate of need. The application is on file with the Michigan Department of Public Health, Division of Health Facility Planning and Construction.

ROVING REPORTER

HAZEL McCAUL

Last week end I spent in Ohio with John, who I am glad to report is doing real well now. He spent Saturday and Sunday at home. Jerry Colborn and I left here Friday morning. We met friends of hers near Dayton, she continued on to Fairfield with them and I went on to the hospital. John and I had a cook out Friday evening with his daughter Sharon Rab and husband. Saturday we went to the Dayton Mall, then I had a home cooked dinner for him at his house. Sunday we had a picnic at his sister's in Xenia - all the family there - 14 of us and a beautiful day to be outside. Returned John to the Rehab and I stayed at his house Sunday night and left for home Monday. Picked up Jerry at I-27-70 crossing. Forgot, I left Alma Wilcox with her sister at Bellevue. Picked her up and arrived home at 6:15. A real nice week-end and so glad to see him progressing so well again. And you can see he is better because he can get out now - in his wheel chair. Will soon have his limb and then we will see what happens. Pray for his return to health soon.

Catherine and Bud Cisler and I called at the funeral home Wednesday evening to pay last respects to Max Hazzard, Bud's sister Tiny's husband.

Monday Loretta and I will attend the senior citizen picnic at the Ver Merris cottage at Gun Lake.

Loretta,her grandchildren and I spent Wednesday at John Ball Park. Why do we need to pay more if not a resident of Grand Rapids? It is still county operated.

Sunday Loretta, Gertrude, charlotte, Catherine and I had dinner at Western Sizzler. Saw many Caledonia folks there.

All the Reaser family spent Friday evening with Harry and Bernadine before Diane and family left for Florida. They will visit Frank's parents in Clearwater for 2-3 weeks. He will soon be transferred to California from Hawaii. Harry and Bernadine took them to Detroit to the airport Tuesday to fly out to Florida.

June and Clare Tungate spent from Friday to Sunday at Grand Haven with Mary Beth Witte and family. While there they attended the Coast Guard Festival along with the crowd. The fireworks and parade were beautiful. They spent last Sunday thru Thursday with Paul Tungate and family at Clarkston. Enjoyed seeing the grandchildren in their Little League games.

I called on Milton and Joyce Buehler at Freeport Thursday and with them attended the funeral of Gus (Walter) Woods at the M.E. Church. Saw the family - many I had in school when I taught there, also many other students and families.

Bernadine and Harry Reaser spent Sunday afternoon with Charlie and Marj Williams at their trailer at Sharp Park.

I had supper with Mildred and Jigg Kermeen Thursday evening and the usual visit.

A week ago, Douglas Witte spent the week end with his grandparents, June and Clare Tungate.

Caledonia Senior Citizens Visit Crossroads Village

45 Greater Area Caledonia senior citizens boarded their bus at 8:15 one morning last week to head for Flint with their coordinator Cora and her son Tim.

We arrived at Crossroad Village at 10:40 to board the Huckleberry Train with an "All Aboard" call given. Many passengers were in the coaches. The steam powered 38-ton Baldwin locomotive that pulls the wooden passenger coaches, gondolas and caboose was originally designed to operate at temperatures near 80° below zero near Fairbanks, Alaska. The restored coaches, the oldest which was built in 1875, came from railroads located in the West and Southwest and Mexico. How the name of Huckleberry Train was originated, the engineer would stop along the way and grab a handful of wild huckleberries. Our trip lasted 45 minutes on the train, came back to Crossroad Village with the dirt roads and board walks. A very interesting little town, very historical. Houses that are there were all moved from other locations, all over 100 years old. We had our lunch at a small cafe there, and being the only eating place, they were real busy.

Leaving here at 2 p.m., we headed for Frankenmuth to visit the new Bronners Christmas Store and garden which was great.

Leaving there at 4 p.m. on our way to Lansing to go to Bill Knapp's Restaurant where we had our reservations for dinner. All real hungry and what a bounteous meal we had. We started for home at 6:45 with a sing-a-long on the bus led by Howard VerMerris of Middleville.

Some of our senior citizens told me this was the first time they have ridden on a train, so more power to you, keep it up. That's what we have got - "Senior power."

A thank you from all of us to our coordinator for the fine job she did to get this trip together and watch over all the flock, and to anyone else who helped in any way. See you on the next trip.

Ross Sprague, pitching for the Middleville Youth Baseball team, stretches with the throw in tournament games played last weekend in Ada. Jeff Burtch, in the background, watches for the hit. The team ended third in the 12-team tourney.

TK Youth League Baseball Team Places Third in Tournament

The TK Youth baseball league was well represented recently at a tournament in Ada. A team, made up of 11 and 12 year old boys, placed third out of a field of twelve. Some of the other teams entering the tournament were from Big Rapids, Kentwood, Saranac, Belding and Chippewa Hills. A team from Howard City picked up the first place trophy while an Ada team placed second.

Middleville's team got off to a good start by beating Central Montcalm 8-3. Only six hits were collected by the boys, but four were home runs. The following day Middleville defeated the team from Ada 7-2 but without the benefit of any long ball hitting. Excellent defensive play by Middleville proved to be the difference in this contest.

Two losses the next day marked the end to Middleville's hopes for first or second place. Their first defeat came at the hands of the eventual champions, Howard City. Middleville bats were silent as Howard City's pitcher hurled a 7-0 no-hitter. The Ada team which Middleville had defeated earlier in the tournament was not to be beaten a second time. Both teams batted well, but in this game it was Ada who played almost errorless defense and posted an 11-2 win.

This was the first time in many years that Middleville has fielded an 11-12 year old tournament team, and the results were well worth the effort.

Society Publishes Directory of State Historical Agencies

A directory that can put you in touch with over 43,000 people who are involved in history? A directory that can put you in touch with your own historical past?

It's the "Directory of Historical Societies and Agencies in Michigan" published by the Historical Society of Michigan.

"We hope that this directory will prove beneficial in many ways, most especially as an inspiration to those who are involved in the work of local history," said Thomas L. Jones, executive director of the statewide organization.

The directory lists historical societies and agencies throughout Michigan. Each entry gives the address, phone number, contact person, membership information, publications and major activities of each organization.

Containing information on more than 375 organizations, this directory is a valuable tool for libraries, civic groups, city governments and persons interested in pursuing the history of their own community.

"This publication is also a resource for those people who are interested, but not yet involved with their local community's historical efforts. We hope that they will use it to locate their local organization and then commit themselves to its support. Finally, for those readers who have moved, this directory might reintroduce them to their hometown society and thereby form a tangible link with their own past," added Jones.

The directory is $2.95 plus $2 postage and handling. It is also being offered free to anyone who joins the society.

For information about the Directory and other Society publications and membership information, contact the HSM office, 2117 Washtenaw Ave., Ann Arbor MI 48104 or phone 313-769-1828.

The Historical Society of Michigan is the only non-governmental, not-for-profit statewide organization working to preserve and interpret Michigan's heritage. It is supported by nearly 6,000 members and serves as the major clearinghouse of information for more than 275 local historical and preservation organizations in Michigan.

S.S. Benefactors Should Review Yearly Earnings

People in the Grand Rapids area who receive Social Security benefits, who also work, should take some time soon to review their earnings for this year, the district manager said recently.

This review should be made, manager Robert Fleminger said, so people will know where they stand in relation to the annual earnings test. This test is the measure used to determine the amount of benefits that should be paid a working beneficiary.

In general, a person is due all benefits for a year if his or her earnings do not exceed the annual exempt amount. For people under 65 all of 1981, the annual exempt amount is $4,080, and for people 65 and over any part of 1981, the amount is $5,500 Fleminger said.

The general rule is that $1 in benefits is withheld for each $2 of earnings above the annual exempt amount. A person who expects his or her earnings to exceed the annual exempt amount should notify Social Security so that the appropriate amount of benefits can be withheld. This way, the person can avoid the possibility of having to repay any incorrectly paid benefits.

People should remember that gross wages, not take home pay, count for purpose of the annual earnings test.

People who want more information should contact the Grand Rapids Social Security office. The people there will be glad to answer any questions. The office is located at 250 Monroe N.W. in the Calder Plaza Building, 456-2241.

Middleville Clovers Successful at Barry County Fair

Every summer 4-H members and leaders look forward to the Barry County Fair and the culmination of the year's efforts. As usual, the Middleville Clovers played an active role in every phase of the program.

The fair was "Free" this year, and to make the public more aware, the Barry County 4-H Council sponsored a contest. Different clubs around the county were asked to put a display in their community, advertising the fair. The Clovers entered a display in the bank lobby and the livestock members created a fair scene in Geukes' window. The club received a second and third award for their efforts.

Feather Thompson, Joyce Mesecar, Jerrie Fiala and Phyl Miner worked together creating a "General Store" atmosphere for all the club's projects at the fair. The special effects, plus the Heritage Association's loan of their backdrop and display case helped us to win a 4th on the booth.

The following 4-H members completed projects with the Clovers 4-H Club and received ribbons at the fair:

Amanda Baerman, Deb and Dawn Bos, Cari Bradley, Anne Browne, Ja ne Bryans, Julie Bussema, Kathy Cooley, Terrill Courtney, Michelle Errair, Jason Fiala, John Frie, Jennifer Frey, Jennifer Geukes, Julie Harrison, Jeff and Matt Hernandez, Jane Jackson, Amy and Robby Lawrence, Tammy Maichele, Vicki McCarthy, Kristy and Steve Miner, Kim Newman, Andrea Reurink, Missy Rounds, Sara Schondelmayer, Jon Scott, Kim and Jeanne Streeter, Amy Thompson, Burke Thompson, Roger Trutsch, Brenda Van Duine, Amy and Jodi Van Rhee, Lori Wieringa, Chris and Darcy Wingeier, Brenda Swanson, Melinda James and Kim Belson.

These members received an Outstanding or Best of Show award: Shelly Baerman and Christy Bradley, Sewing; Joyce Bussema, Kelly Wieringa Ann Bryans, foods; Amy Gosset and Kathy Miner, Pen and Ink on Glass; Nikki Harrison and Denise Van Duine, Ecology boxes; Tim Mesecar, Independent Wood Carving; Doug Mesecar, Country Painting; Wendy Wieringa, Christmas foods; Jane Jackson, Macrame.

Livestock members Jane Bryans won the rate-of-gain contest with one of her steers, and Kelly Wieringa really cleaned up with both the Grand and Reserve Grand Champion Lambs, plus the Grand Champion Pen.

At this time we would like to thank the leaders of the Middleville Clovers for all their hope this past year. The leaders and their projects are: Dick Bryans, Beef; Marianne Baerman, Ecology Boxes, Outdoor cooking and Christmas Crafts; Kathy Bracy, Alice Bradley, Mable Dennistion, Deb Frey, Sewing; Jerrie Fiala, Photography; Don Geukes, Hogs; Janet Geukes, Foods; Eleanor Geukes, Sewing; Cindy Herweyer, Sewing; Fran Maichele, Candle Making; Joyce Mesecar, Pen & Ink, Mini Ecology Boxes, Raffia Dolls and Christmas Crafts; Cathy Moma, Cake Decorating; Doris Raver, Sewing; Helen Scott, Macrame; Feather Thompson, Country Painting; Judy Thompson, Sewing; Mary Tolan, Needle Crafts; Diane Trutsch, Sewing; Lois VanDuine, Outdoor Cooking and Ecology Boxes; Tom Wieringa, Sheep; Sandy Wieringa, Foods; Helen Wingeier, Foods; and Deb Jeurink, Rabbits.

We would also like to thank our general leaders, Phyllis and Max Miner and Betty and Dick Bryans for the many hours spent working with leaders and 4-Hers in the 1980-81 project year.

The Middleville Clovers 4-H Livestock Club also thanks local businesses, the Booth Agency and Carrousel Realty, who should have been included in last week's list of buyers.

Members Darcy and Chris Wingeier sold lambs at the sale, and their names were also omitted from the article.

Charley, Joyce Fisher and children and I were dinner guests of Fern and Charles Poland Sunday.

Monday I went with Cleo and Ard DeWind to Howard VerMerris' cottage at Gun Lake. We senior citizens all had pot luck dinner there. In the afternoon there were games, visiting, and many went for ride on his pontoon. Very nice time, the day turned out good.

Guess this corner of Parmalee and Whitneyville is a jinx. Last night a car must have thought they were at the corner to turn, instead went down embankment, drove around lawn where Hennings lived, and back out on highway. Went toward Freeport. Evidently no one hurt.

Sure having our share of hot, humid weather. I would welcome snow just now. How about that?

Guess lots of folks vacationing.

Bob Harrison and wife on trip to Hawaii, a trip she won, I understand.

Don't forget our McNee reunion Aug 16 at Moe School. Potluck dinner, bring own table service.

MARY JACKSON — Ph. 795-9877

Quite a number of the After Sixty Club were lunch guests of the senior group in Hastings last week. There was a small charge of 75¢ for lunch. It was a fine opportunity for members to get acquainted.

Recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Finkbeiner and family were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Neitz of Elkhart, Ind., Mr. and Mrs. Robert Leonard of St. Johns and Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Finkbeiner of Crediton, Ontario.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Williams took Mrs. Ardis Lutz of the Clark Memorial Home to Ashley last Saturday evening for the wedding of her granddaughter, Kathy Lutz.

Regene Eggleston was a guest of her grandmother, Mrs. Gladys Carter, Wednesday.

Many enjoyed watching the pageantry of the wedding of Prince Charles and Lady Diane last Wednesday which began here at 5 a.m. We may never see such pageantry in this generation again.

Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Finkbeiner were last weekend guests of Julius and Audrey Fox at Rainbow Lake near Truphant.

About 80 relatives, neighbors and friends attended the farewell party Sunday afternoon for Mr. and Mrs. Jim McKeown and family held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Scott McKeown on M-37. The Jim McKeown family left for Wyoming.

Irvin Timm is a patient at St. Mary's Hospital, Room 540, recovering from a serious motorcycle-truck accident in Cody, Wyoming. He is still in traction and it will be some time before he returns to Middleville. Irv has quite a bit of company (but no one ever has too much, do they).

Mrs. Letha Reynolds returned home Sunday from Blodgett Hospital where a pacemaker was inserted.

Mrs. Dorothy VanOort is having trouble with her eye and is under a doctor's care.

Charles David Fisher, son of Mr. and Mrs. David Fisher (she is the former Kajean Baragar) was baptized in the United Methodist Church Sunday morning. The Rev. Bradley Kalajainen officiated at his first baptism. Young David's family from both sides were well represented as attending were his great grandfather, Mr. Richard Fisher from Fostoria, Ohio; his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Fisher of Plymouth, Michigan, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Baragar of Middleville; great-grandparents, the Glen Deans of Middleville. Kelly Baragar of the U.S.Navy at Annapolis was on hand, as well as Mr. and Mrs. Kevin Baragar and infant son, and other local relatives. Two outstanding features were a solo by Mrs. Bradley (Colleen) Kalajainen, who accompanied herself on the piano, and Mrs. Dann (Francy) Tobin who accompanied herself on the guitar. A most impressive service.

Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Finkbeiner are receiving congratulations on the birth of a grandson, Patrick William, born July 1 to Mr. and Mrs. Larry Finkbeiner at Westphalia.

Mrs. Marie Windes tells me forty couples of their church are helping an Indian community near Elk Rapids, renewing their homes by putting on shingles, re-siding homes, making steps that are needed to be done.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Steiner attended the wedding Saturday night of Louise Lewis and John Herrick at the Sts. Cyril and Methodius Church.

The Pat Harrison family attended the Bowman family reunion held Sunday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Wiesenhofer. Other than that day of fun, they're "busy in the corn."

The Phil Benders helped Barb's brother, Ken Terpstra, celebrate his birthday Saturday in Wyoming. On Sunday the Benders enjoyed a carry-in dinner at the Wesleyan Church.

A couple of our sons were among the many local softball players involved in the tournaments this past weekend. After six ball games one right after the other, they were pretty worn out, but figured to win four and lose two games wasn't all that bad.

These 'lazy days of summer' are slipping by much too fast . . . besides it's hard to be lazy when the corn is hanging heavy on the plant and the pickles are growing like balloons . . and the tomatoes are getting red. Enjoy!
